Two Days in May

| Early one Saturday morning in May, I went to our fire | 11 |
|--|-----|
| escape window and rubbed the sleep from my eyes. I looked | 22 |
| down at the small garden I had planted behind our apartment | 33 |
| building. Five animals were grazing on the new lettuce in my | 44 |
| garden! | 45 |
| "Mama! Mama!" I called. "Come see what's in our yard!" | 55 |
| Mama hurried over to the window and gasped. Sonia, | 64 |
| those animals are deer, but how did they get here?" she | 75 |
| asked. "I'll run and tell the landlord." | 82 |
| By the time Papa and I got out to the courtyard, a small | 95 |
| crowd was gathering. | 98 |
| "Papa, why are there deer in the city?" I asked. | 108 |
| "The deer may have come all this way looking for food. | 119 |
| They probably smelled your garden," he explained. | 126 |
| I thought I had never seen such an amazing sight. | 136 |
| Their fur was a golden brown, and they balanced on tiny | 147 |
| hooves. They had nervous tails, and eyes that were big and | 158 |
| black and gentle. | 161 |
| Down the block a train rumbled by, but here life | 171 |
| seemed to stand still. Pigeons and squirrels were almost the | 181 |
| only birds or animals we ever saw in our neighborhood. | 191 |
| Looking around I recognized many neighbors. I noticed | 199 |
| that even neighbors who were almost strangers were | 207 |
| standing close to each other and whispering in a friendly way. | 218 |
