

Name _____

Which Form Is It?

Read each sentence. Decide which inflected form of the base word shown in parentheses belongs in the sentence. Then write the word in the blank.

easy adjective Needing very little effort; not hard.

adjective easier, easiest nod verb To move the head down and then up in a quick motion.

noun A nodding motion.

verb nodded, nodding noun, plural nods

rumble verb To make or move with a deep, long rolling sound.

noun A deep, long rolling sound.

verb rumbled, rumbling noun, plural rumbles study noun The act or process of learning. 2. A branch of knowledge.

verb 1. To try to learn. 2. To examine closely and carefully.

noun, plural studies verb studied, studying

- The deer were (nod) nodding (2 points)
their heads sleepily.
- The first truck that (rumble) _____ down the street was a delivery van.
- Saving deer is not the (easy) _____ task, but it's worth the effort.
- Clarence said, "We (study) _____ deer in science last year."
- The wildlife rescuer (nod) _____
in greeting.
- Sonia felt sad as the truck was (rumble) _____
away with the deer.